Joint Seminar and Games for the Public Sector Leaders of Malaysia and Singapore kicks off on 30 Sep

The 3rd Joint Seminar for Public Sector Leaders for Malaysia and Singapore and the 34th Malaysia-Singapore Public Service Games will be held in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia from 30 Sep to 2 Oct 2011.

Mr Peter Ong, Head of the Singapore Civil Service, will lead the 15-member Singapore delegation which comprises Permanent Secretaries, Deputy Secretaries and senior civil servants.

Hosting the Singapore delegation will be Tan Sri Sidek Hassan, the Chief Secretary to the Government of Malaysia, together with a delegation of 17 Malaysian senior civil servants, comprising Secretary-Generals and senior officials from the Malaysian Civil Service.

The three-day programme includes the Joint Seminar, courtesy calls by the Singapore delegation on their respective counterparts, an official dinner hosted by Tan Sri Sidek Hassan and a golf game.

About Joint Seminar for Public Sector Leaders for Malaysia and Singapore

The Joint Seminar for Public Sector Leaders for Malaysia and Singapore is an informal programme for senior civil servants from Singapore and Malaysia to exchange views on topics of mutual interest. The Joint Seminar, to be hosted alternately by Malaysia's National Institute of Public Administration (INTAN) and Singapore's Civil Service College (CSC), was first organised by INTAN in April 2008. The 2nd Joint Seminar was organised by CSC in August 2009.

About Malaysia – Singapore Public Service Games

The Malaysia-Singapore Public Service Games allow senior civil servants from Malaysia and Singapore to get to know each other better and enhance the relationship of the Civil Services of the two countries. The Games, which are hosted alternately between Malaysia and Singapore, were first held in 1973 in Kuala Lumpur. Singapore hosted the last Games in 2010.
